<sup>1</sup> Defendant filed three “Motions for New Trial” alleging that: 1) a government witness knowingly gave false testimony; 2) the government presented false evidence at trial; 3) the government purposely withheld Brady material concerning a government witness (Documents # 451, #452, #453).

Even if the motions were properly before this Court, because this Defendant is represented by counsel, the Court's practice is not to consider such pro se filings absent some written notification by counsel that the motions are supported by the law, are adopted by counsel, and should be treated as any other motion filed in this case.

Since the foregoing reasons are dispositive, the Court will not reach the question whether the motions for new trial were timely filed under Rule 33 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED that: the Defendant's "Motion for New Trial" is denied.
